Hi [REDACTED],

Here is a draft email to send to Peter. Feel free to hack at it. I tried to keep it short and to the point ([REDACTED]'s email helped with that!). We really would need to release it today to hit the mark.

START

Hi Peter,

I am writing to seek endorsement to release the following video featuring Climatologist [REDACTED] and Meteorologist [REDACTED], discussing the climate drivers that are currently influencing weather across the country.

[REDACTED] s 47E(d)

We have seen strong interest from the community and media around this topic and the format provides an easy to digest contextualisation of the situation for key sectors. The video also showcases Bureau experts in an engaging way, that emulates the NFS objective to deliver a continuous weather narrative.

Given the reference to the current conditions, we would need to release this video today, Friday 22 November.

END

Let me know if you need any more information.
